This year, they partnered with Weekday School and collected 800 cans and $674.24 for North Gwinnett Co-Operative, under the leadership of their middle and high school youth groups. They were thrilled to have a substantial cash donation from their supportive church members. GREAT WORK!

Local Youth Advisory Board Members Score a Win in South Carolina!

Four thousand boxes of food were packed by twenty teams from high schools in the greater Columbia, SC region. For the second year, White Knoll HS students participated in Hudson's Heroes. After packing the boxes, students were allowed to take food boxes back for their own school pantries. WKHS had an amazing plan in place to distribute their boxes. In the following weeks, school buses were loaded with food boxes and given to students whose families were in need. Hats off to WKHS! Their effort exemplifies the mission of Souper Bowl of Caring!

Brazos Valley 4H and the Texas Youth Advisory Board

Olivia Williams is a longtime member of the Souper Bowl of Caring's Youth Advisory Board and she is a member of 4H. Taking the idea of a food drive to her team at Brazos Valley, they instantly embraced the plan. Further, Olivia took the idea to all of the 4H Clubs across Texas. They, too, embraced the plan. This year, the Brazos Valley 4H Club raised $29,967 and 205,754 lbs. of food for the Brazos Valley Food Bank. Way to go, Olivia and her team!

Jack and Jill of America Tackled Hunger Together

Congratulations to Jack and Jill of America who had 278 chapters register and participate in the 2019 Souper Bowl of Caring campaign. Together, their efforts created over $133,000 for local hunger relief! From supporting their local schools on the Martin Luther King holiday to packing boxes at their local food bank, over 2,000 youth and their families tackled hunger through the Souper Bowl of Caring's efforts. We are SO proud of their hard work!
